

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SAVED THE HONOR OF OCCUPATION ARMY

(By Associated Press)
COBLENZ, Germany, April 5.—When the Seventeenth Field Artillery, commanded by Colonel E. R. W. McCabe, moved into the ancient fortress of Ehrenbreitstein where, for many generations, the imperious colors of the Hohenzollerns had waved from the great flagstaff a defiance to the world, it was discovered to the dismay of the new garrison that the army did not possess a national standard to proclaim from the tallest parapet the American occupation of the Teuton stronghold.

Couriers were sent to every shop in the city of Coblenz in a forlorn hope that an American flag might have survived the days when Germany paid honor to visiting official and military delegations from the American republic. The search was fruitless and the formal occupation of the fortress seemed destined to be without its chief ceremonial, the hoisting of the colors.

But the couriers of Colonel McCabe reckoned without Secretary Michael Driscoll of the Knights of Columbus, of Danbury, Iowa. As a venture the messengers visited the big war service storehouse of which Mr. Driscoll was in charge.

"Yes, I think I can fix you out all right," said the secretary, and in the depths of his private trunk he found, his most cherished overseas possession, a huge American flag. "This is the only emergency that could ever get that flag away from me," was the admonition of the donor of the colors.

MEN IN THE BOLSHEVIKI ARMY SHOT FOR SLIGHTEST INFRACTION

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
OMSK, Siberia, Feb. 4.—A Russian schoolmaster, who was a prisoner of war in Germany, and who has arrived in Omsk, has given to the newspaper a narrative of his experiences since reaching Russia which throws considerable light on the conditions in the Bolshevik zones of Russia. The schoolmaster said that almost all the released Russian prisoners were suffering from hunger and practically destitute of clothing.

At first they were received with animosity but later the Bolsheviks organized propaganda bureaus where socialist literature was distributed to the prisoners in an attempt to convert them to Bolshevism. Meetings were held and offers were made to enroll the prisoners in the Bolshevik armies under the following conditions. A gift of two suits of clothing, 600 rubles in cash, provisions for two weeks. The officers were offered from 1000 to 2500 rubles in cash. The Bolsheviks, he said, had no success in recruiting the officers and some soldiers, who were in the worst physical condition, accepted their proposals. The majority, however, deserted, at the first possible opportunity.

The schoolmaster said that the discipline in the Bolshevik army as evidenced by the soldiers was extremely rigorous. For the least infraction the soldiers were shot. The released class in the Red army is made up of Magyars, Letts and sailors. The rest are supported as cannon fodder as possible for the Russian middle class are forced to labor in the trenches or fortifications or to serve as servants for the Bolshevik soldiers.

The Bolsheviks, the returned prisoners said, attribute great importance to their so-called "young orators" who secretly remain behind in the towns evacuated by the Red Guard and try to corrupt and win over the troops of the Russian National Army. The Red Guard leaders declare that it is only over their lifeless bodies that the Allies will take the "commune of the North," a name which they gave to Petrograd.

At Petrograd, the schoolmaster said, all the workmen between 17 and 45 are mobilized. A large number of military schools have been opened for the army. Trotsky, the Bolshevik war minister, was accorded an aviation pilot's license.

Advance Sale of Seats For Fight Starts Well

The Business Men's Athletic club, which is staging the first of a series of big fights in this city Tuesday night, April 15, at the Airborne, placed the advance subscription list on sale yesterday and over $700 worth of ring-side seats were snapped up by the big mining men, brokers, and other visitors to the camp in less than two hours which indicates a packed house will be on hand to witness the big 20-round contest between Sailor Lloyd of San Francisco just recently discharged from the United States navy, and Welch of New York who is conceded to be one of the greatest middleweights in the country.

Cal Hittner, who is managing the big show for the business men, is intended to have the boys work out under the Tonopah club, but space is so much in demand for brokers' offices, etc., on Main street it was thought advisable to have the boys train at the volunteer fire department gymnasium, and Lloyd, who arrived from San Francisco this morning, will commence training tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 sharp, and all visitors are welcome to see him go through his conditioning stunts at any time.

Welch will arrive in Tonopah tomorrow morning and immediately prepare himself for the fight by working at the gym at 3:30 p. m. each day.

In addition to the boxing the Tonopah band and other musical numbers will be presented to keep the big crowd in good humor during the evening.

The advance sale of seats will be placed with the Tonopah Club, Desert Club, Drysdale's, Cobweb, Blake's, Northern and Casino Monday morning and anyone desiring a good seat should make their reservations early.

LORD GREY NOT TOTALLY BLIND

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, April 5.—The widely published report that Viscount Grey, who was foreign minister in Mr. Asquith's cabinet, and whose speeches in the house of commons in 1914 were a powerful influence in making up the mind of the British public for war, had become totally blind was exaggerated.

Writing to a friend who had sent him condolence, Lord Grey replied: "I lost the power of reading some months ago and dry-fly fishing became impossible last year, as I could no longer see the flies. Salmon fishing, I hope, will still be possible. I am glad to see the great progress made at Paris with the project of a league of nations."

Lord Grey made his last public appearance a few months ago when he delivered an address in London in support of the league of nations.
